

Discounts for you — just for being Blue®

On top of your standard health benefits, you have access to discounts on a variety of products and services to enhance your quality of life. Think of them as special perks just for being Blue.

These services generally will not be covered under your regular health plan benefits. You are responsible for any costs of these services that are not covered by your benefit plan ... but they may help you take charge of your health and save money.

Check out the discounts on items such as:
